

Nanaimo Lifeline Volunteer Opportunity:

Check In Caller

Nanaimo Lifeline is owned and operated by the Nanaimo & District Hospital Foundation. All proceeds from Nanaimo Lifeline support healthcare in Central Vancouver Island.

This position is for people who love chatting on the phone! The Check In Service is for people experiencing social isolation who want someone to check in on them. You'll make a short phone call to about 10 clients once per week, all from the comfort of your home. All you need is a computer and a phone!

Time commitment is 1-2 hours per week, set schedule. Training is provided.
